Spring & Fall 2013 Checklist for
CURRENT UNDERGRADUATE & TRANSFER APPLICANTS

The Application Deadline for SPRING is January 4, 2013
The Priority Application Date for FALL is March 1, 2013

(Applicants who apply after these dates and who qualify for SALT services, may be subject to a Waiting List)

___ Submit SALT Center application materials, which include the following:
   ● Complete the SALT application.
   ● Respond to essay question 1.
   ● Complete the Self-Awareness Survey.
   ● Submit application-processing fee.
     ($15.00 Arizona resident, $40.00 Non-Arizona resident)
   ● Provide documentation of a learning or attention difference or respond to essay question 2.

   ➢ A SALT Center admission decision cannot be made until all required SALT application materials have been submitted.
   ➢ In addition, Transfer Students will need to be admitted to UA before the SALT Center can make an admission decision.

___ Submit diagnostic testing to the Disability Resource Center (DRC) for accommodations
   ● Separate and apart from the SALT Center, the Disability Resource Center (DRC) works with individual students to identify reasonable disability accommodations.
   ● A reasonable accommodation is a reasonable modification in policies, practices, or procedures. Examples of reasonable accommodations include, but are not limited to: text conversation to accessible formats, interpreter services/real-time captioning, examination modifications, and making facilities readily accessible and usable by individuals with disabilities.
   ● Students who wish to request reasonable disability accommodations should visit the DRC website at http://drc.arizona.edu/.
   ● Students can submit documentation electronically to the DRC at drc-info@email.arizona.edu.

___ Financial Aid Reminders & Information
   ● Scholarship Universe website: https://scholarshipuniverse.arizona.edu.
   ● If you wish to be considered for a need-based SALT Center Scholarship Award for the 2013-2014 academic year, visit the SALT Center website. The Scholarship Award Application for 2013-2014 will be available beginning in January 2013. The deadline is March 1, 2013.
